The Full Text of the Statute with Copious Annotations

THIRD AND REVISED EDITION, 1908

By JOHN J. CRAWFORD, of the New York Bar

By Whom the Statute was Drawn

The adoption of this Law so generally by the different States, has made it one of the most important statutes ever enacted in this Country. Hardly any case now arises upon a negotiable instrument, but requires the application of some provision of the Act.

The standard edition of the Law is that prepared by the draftsman. In this Third Edition the author has cited upwards of two hundred new cases, in which the statute has been construed or applied. These are not only important in the states where they were rendered, but also in all other states where the statute is in force.

All of the original annotations are preserved. These are not merely a digest and compilation of cases, but indicate the decisions and other sources from which the various provisions of the statute were drawn. A specially important feature is that the notes point out the changes which have been made in the law.

CRAWFORD'S ANNOTATED NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS LAW, Third Edition (1908) is a neat octavo volume, bound in law canvas. Price, 3.00 net, but sent by mail or express, prepaid, on receipt of the amount.

"THE CREAM OF PROBATE LAW"

NOW READY—VOLUME 12

PROBATE REPORTS ANNOTATED

Containing (in full) over 100 cases of general interest and value decided in the highest Courts of the several States, on points of Probate Law since Vol. 11 was issued, with full notes and references and with a digest of many recent cases other than those reported in full.

The PROBATE REPORTS ANNOTATED, are handsome octavo volumes of about 800 pages each. Price $5.50 net per volume, but sent, all charges prepaid, on receipt of price. SPECIAL TERMS of payment given on complete sets.

The Beginners Problem

¶ Every young lawyer has to decide several important questions which vitally affect his whole career. Where shall he locate? Shall he open an office alone, take a partner or accept a position with an established firm? How about a working library?

¶ The failure to solve this last problem wisely has cost many a young lawyer dearly, either through his being handicapped by lack of proper tools or by a debt so large as to be a constant drag on his progress. Neither is necessary. You do not need at the outset an expensive collection of Reports, Digests, Text-books and Encyclopedias. On the other hand, you can do no more than stumble along unless your library covers the whole field. There is only one way.

Lawyers Reports Annotated

Are Reports, Digests and Text-books. Reports in that they report at the rate of 1,200 cases a year, those cases from all jurisdictions which are most valuable everywhere. Digests in that the notes furnish the best possible key to any large reference library, state or otherwise, which may be accessible. Text-Books in that the note, taking for its subject a narrow brief point, analyzes all cases and presents all the law on that point.

¶ Buy first your own state reports. Next LAWYERS REPORTS ANNOTATED. You then have an adequate working library. You can add other valuable reports, digests or text-books as special need for them may develop in your practice.

¶ We will send you free a 600 page bound book called "Desk Book for Brief Makers," showing subjects covered in 82 volumes. Send transportation, only 25 cents, in stamps, if most convenient.

¶ You can start with the New Series if you wish, 14 volumes, 1906-1908, and add 1-70 First Series, 1888-1906, later. Ask for sample pages and full information.

A NEW HORN BOOK

American Mining Law

By GEORGE P. COSTIGAN, Jr.

Dean of the College of Law of the University of Nebraska.

Following the popular "Hornbook" plan of presenting the rules and principles of the law in black-letter paragraphs, which form a skeleton of the whole subject. Commentary and explanation follow; and the notes refer to the authorities.

The author has supplemented an extended experience as a practitioner with several years of teaching mining law.

1 volume. Buckram. $3.75 delivered.

The Hornbooks are the best text-books for reviewing a subject or for collateral reading. A clear arrangement is half the battle in grasping a subject, and you will find the black-letter text a map. $3.75 a volume. All the main topics of the law.

TEST QUESTIONS

ON
LAW, EQUITY, PRACTICE, PLEADING, EVIDENCE,
 CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE

With Answers and References, and also Rules for the Admission of Attorneys in the State of New York

By EDWIN BAYLIES, LL.D.

Author of the Seventh Edition of Wait's Law and Practice, etc.

AN EXPERIENCED LAW WRITER, the author of several works, and one who has made a specialty of New York Practice, has carefully prepared this work with special reference to the requirements of the Rules for the Admission of Attorneys, and with a view of furnishing not only a condensed review of the more important principles underlying the Law and Practice in this State, but also as a test of the practical knowledge of Legal Principles and Rules of Practice and Pleading gained in the lecture room or office, and of the fitness of the student for enrollment in the ranks of the legal profession.

THE TEST OF A PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE of legal principles lies in the ability to apply them to facts; and for the purpose of developing this power, the matters treated in this volume are presented in the form of questions embracing the facts and answers embracing the law.

THE RULE, THE REASON for the rule, and the important exception to the rule are given in this work, supported by citations of decisions of our courts selected with reference to their clear exposition of the principles involved.

THE INDEX is exceptionally complete and carefully prepared.

A VALUABLE AID to the Student in his preparation for admission to the bar.

AN OFT-CONSULTED FRIEND when engaged in active practice.

Moore on Facts

A TREATISE ON THE

Weight and Value of Evidence

In Two Volumes

PRICE $12.00, DELIVERED

Bound in Full Sheep or Imported Buckram, as preferred

In discussing questions of law you quote freely from the opinions of judges. You not only let the judges argue your case for you, but you strive to compel them to do so, for you search in every quarter for reported cases wherein the point in controversy has been judicially considered. Why not let the judges argue questions of fact for you? These are notoriously more difficult to decide than questions of law. Your need of aid is consequently so much the greater. If judges in reported cases have expressed their opinions concerning the weight of any of the evidence in your case, don't you think their experience, their impartiality, and their deliberation give more value to what they say than can be claimed for the utterances of a paid and zealous advocate? Be assured that some of the features of your case on the facts have received the attention of judges in other cases. Moore on Facts, and no other treatise and no digest, tells you where those cases are—in the United States, Canada, or England—and what the judges said. The primary object of Moore on Facts is to aid lawyers in the argument of questions of fact, especially in desperate cases, and to that end the author made an original exploration of the reports, and devoted many years of patient toil to the collection of material which has been carefully wrought into these volumes.

Please do not ask it. You can order now and arrange for reasonable terms of payment, but unless your order is received before February 1st the price will be $7.50 per volume, or $45 for the set.

Save $9.00

If you have the Reports, any edition, you will want this Digest and will of course buy, sooner or later, because it is the only complete Digest of U. S. Reports and nothing can take the place of a Digest as a key to the Reports.

If you have not the Reports you nevertheless must know what the U. S. Supreme Court has decided on questions you are briefing and how better could you know this than through a perfect Digest? This Digest also gives, in the citation notes, reference to all state and federal decisions on the same points.

Some day you expect to buy the reports—every lawyer of any court practice does. Therefore why not buy this Digest now for temporary use and when you buy the Reports you have the Digest which otherwise you would have to buy.

Therefore order now and save $9.00
